FOUR AMERICANS EXECUTED

GIVES CLEW SHOT IN HEAD WOMAN IN CASE TO DOUBLE AS HE SITS TRAGEDY IN PARK

Woman Reports That Husband Killed Wife and Committed Suicide

Refuses to Give Name After Telling of Mysterious Crime

FRUITVALE, March 23.—Mysterious reports of a murder and suicide said to have occurred early this morning in a lonely ranch house along the Dublin road the other side of Hayward, were telephoned to the Dawson drug store here today. A woman who gave a fictitious telephone number informed E. R. Dawson as to certain facts, stating that she had been informed by persons coming here from the vicinity of Niles that a rancher had shot and killed his wife, afterward turning the weapon on himself. A Chinese cook employed on the place fled, it was said, and nothing more had been heard of him. The woman giving the information would not leave her name and after the first inquiry failed to call again. The telephone number she gave for a reply proved to have been removed from the lists of the company.

The police are mystified over the affair and deputy constables and deputy coroners from Hayward and other towns farther along the Dublin road headed toward Alameda, having taken up the search with a view of locating if possible the place where the tragedy occurred, being almost confident that there was some grounds of suspicion behind the veiled message of the unknown woman who made inquiries as to whether a murder had been discovered.

GREATEST NEWS SERVICE IN THE WORLD FOR TRIBUNE

Have you noticed the big improvement made in the telegraphic news of THE TRIBUNE since the new service of the Associated Press went into effect?

Our special A. P. wire connecting THE TRIBUNE with the world, opens every day at 7 a. m. instead of 9 a. m. Under this new system THE TRIBUNE gets the news of the world hours in advance of the morning newspapers; in fact, THE TRIBUNE is fifteen hours in advance of the morning papers in presenting the news.

In one day THE TRIBUNE received 13,000 words over its Associated Press wire. How is that for a service?

Then again it must be remembered that THE TRIBUNE has the exclusive franchise for the Associated Press news in Alameda county. Other papers, of course, steal this news after it is printed in THE TRIBUNE.

Hardly a day passes that THE TRIBUNE receives less than 10,000 words over its A. P. wire.

The Associated Press handles the greatest news service in the world, and THE TRIBUNE is the only paper in Alameda county that receives it.

Mystery Surrounds Wounding of Rollin Patterson in San Francisco. Prominent Petaluman Believed to Have Been Involved in Quarrel.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Sitting on a bench in Jefferson square park at 2:15 o'clock this morning, Rollin Patterson, a prominent furniture dealer of Petaluma, was found with a gaping bullet wound in his head. The discovery was made by Police Officer J. J. Cameron.

Patterson was conscious and on being taken to the Central Emergency hospital nearby declared that he did not know who shot him and denied that he had made an attempt on his life. His wound, although serious, is not necessarily fatal.

The detective department, notified of the mysterious circumstances surrounding the case, began an investigation. The bench where the wounded man was sitting is in front of a clump of bushes and it is possible that a shot might have been fired by some one who had been concealed there.

DENIES SUICIDE.

The presence of powder marks near the wound, which is on the right side of the head, indicated that the weapon must have been held at close range. There were, however, no powder marks on Patterson's hands and his denial of suicidal intent would seem to indicate this.

Soon after being taken to the hospital Patterson lapsed into unconsciousness, and the theory advanced by the police is that he had a quarrel with some one, presumably over a woman, and that in the course of the argument his antagonist shot him.

Patterson is believed here to be a man of family. He is the remaining partner in the old firm of Meeks & Patterson of Petaluma, and is a member of the Elks Lodge No. 32. He came to this city on Tuesday and registered at the Golden West hotel, but has not occupied his apartments since.

J. Ross of the Golden West cigar stand declared this morning that he had been chatting with Patterson last night and that he appeared in fine spirits.

The park where the injured man was found has been the scene of numerous holdups and several shooting affairs in the past.

SAYS SHE IS WIFE.

Mrs. Nourse of 1200 Fifth avenue, Richmond, who says she is a friend of Patterson's wife, called to see him at the Central Emergency hospital this morning. She had heard none of the details of the shooting and could think nothing on the affair.

Detectives Lambert and Bailey obtained the following statement from the wounded man:

"I attended a theater last evening with a friend named Wood. After the show was over Wood left me and I visited several places. I can't remember how I came to be shot, but I know I wasn't in a park. My mind seems a blank after Wood left me, until I found myself in the hospital."

Rank left Nome January 20 with a team of dogs, going over the trail from Nome to Chitina by way of Fairbanks. At Chitina he took a Copper river train to Cordova, where he boarded a steamer for Seattle.

ROOSEVELT MAKES PLEA FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Thousands Hear His Address at the University

Colonel Praised the Men Who Are Digging Panama Canal

VITERBO, March 23.—Maria Stendardo, at whose home, the state alleges, the assassins washed their hands of the blood of the Cuoccolos, was examined by President Bianchi at the trial of the thirty Camorristi today. She is one of the most interesting characters in the case, and the only woman among the prisoners. The charge against her is complicity in the murders and the receiving of stolen goods.

In the course of the interrogation, the accusation was made that she had bribed witnesses to testify falsely in aid of the defendants. This she denied, asserting that, on the contrary, the carabinieri had offered to pay her $12 for each witness whom she secured to sign a statement prepared by them.

Maria Stendardo, whose defense was a general denial of the charges, is under middle age and retains much of the beauty that in youth is said to have made many conquests in the poorer class among whom she was born, and later made her a woman of ease and influence, in both the Camorra and in the official life of Naples. Her home is said to have been a resort of desperate criminals while her friends included men in high places.

MORRA'S INTIMATE FRIEND.

She is an intimate friend of Nicola Morra, one of the alleged actual murderers of Cuoccolo and his wife, and it is charged that Morra and his companions went to the woman's home following the murders. This Maria emphatically denies, insisting that it was another instance of manufactured evidence.

Ferdinando de Matteo, who is accused of having lured Cuoccolo to his death, was another prisoner on the stand today. De Matteo, who is an athlete, is known as a frequenter of questionable resorts. He is illiterate and, according to the police, a vicious character.

The particular charge against him is that he induced Cuoccolo to visit a lonely spot on the outskirts of Torre del Greco, on the pretext that they were to meet to organize a burglary at the home of Commandator Rossi Romano. Cuoccolo fell into the trap and found himself in a place where everything had been prepared for his death.

Under examination De Matteo denied participation in the crime and that he was the head of the Camorra in this district. He said he hated Nicola Morra and would never work with him in a crime. They had quarreled years ago, he said, over a theft in which they were engaged.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, The Lower Scene Is a View of Part of the Audience in the Greek Theater at the Charter Day Exercises.

ter at 10:30 o'clock. A large crowd at Tenth street cheered the colonel.

Roosevelt emerged from the train smiling and cheerful after his long night's ride, and expressed his pleasure in being again in the east bay regions, whose scenic beauties have ever been a delight him.

"This is charming, by George," said Roosevelt, as he started on the automobile ride through Oakland to the university. "I am glad to be back in California. We have had fine weather in Northern California and enjoyed every minute of it."

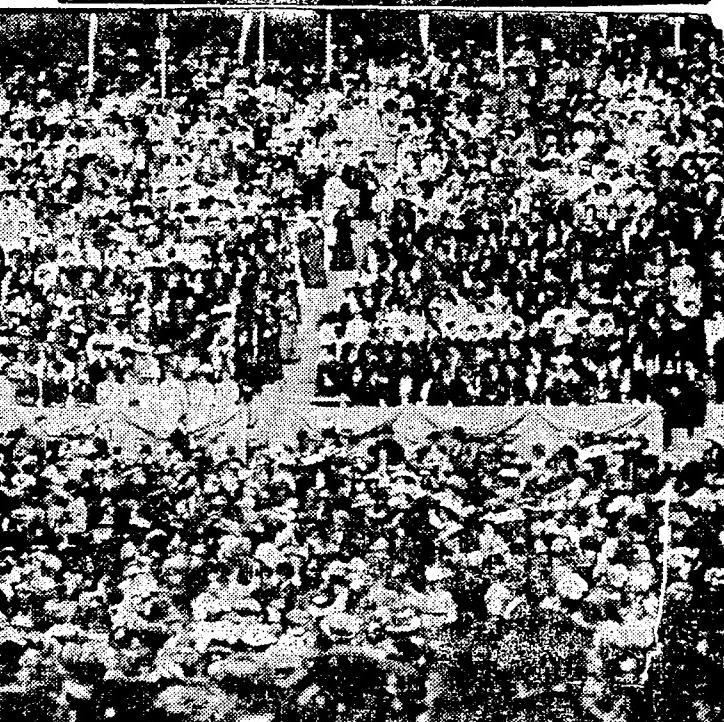

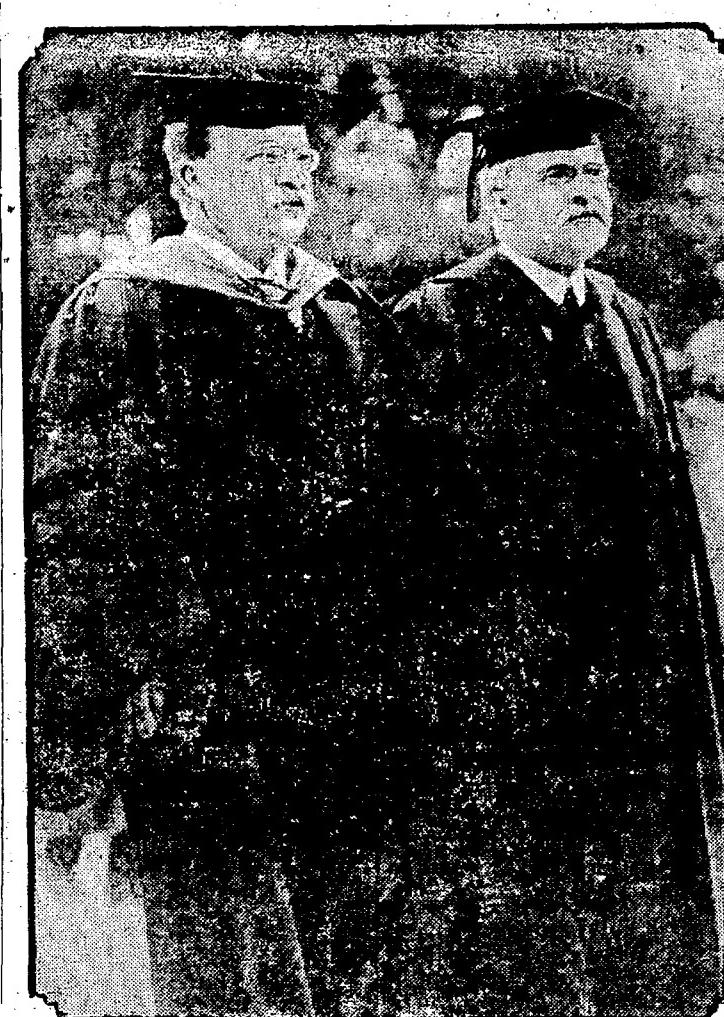

The colonel expressed pleasure at revisiting San Francisco bay. His stay here, he said, would be longer than at any previous visit. "I have part of my family here now," he said, referring to the fact that his son Theodore is a resident of San Francisco, "and I feel like one of you."

Roosevelt and President Wheeler discussed familiar and mutual topics during their ride to the university. The automobile route was up Sixteenth street to Telegraph avenue out to Telegraph to the Claremont district, and up College avenue to the university campus.

FEW MINUTES OF REST.

During the drive through the college grounds Roosevelt again expressed his delight with the natural surroundings of this region. The new university building.

Baston, a young business man, is in jail here today. Baston contested the city's right to assess the poll tax and carried the case to the appellate division, which unanimously decided against him. He refused to pay and was committed to jail for five days. The outcome of the case has been awaited by nearly 800 tax delinquents.

AMERICANS ORGANIZE

NEW YORK, March 23.—News has reached here of the organization in Constantinople of an American Chamber of Commerce, in which seventy business houses in the Turkish capital are represented. Branches of the chamber will be organized at Beirut, Bagdad, Jerusalem and other commercial centers throughout European and Asiatic Turkey.

MORE LAND PURCHASED BY ST. LEO'S PARISH

A sale that assures Oakland a handsome new church is that made by George W. Austin of the lot at Piedmont and St. Leo's Catholic church. The property has 100 feet frontage on Piedmont avenue and the lot of 65 feet frontage already owned gives a site 165 by 125 feet. The building of the church has begun.

Austin calls attention to the interest that Oakland investments are exciting as far west as New York. Ray L. Bell, a former Oaklander, who has been a week arranging to handle California lands and Oakland investments from his office in Wall street. He plans to take large tracts and sell them throughout the country in parcels of 500 acres and over. He will establish an Oakland office.

The interest being taken in the country along the new Oakland and Antioch railroad is shown by the opening of a branch office at Concord by Austin.

CRUSHED IN ELEVATOR.

Chihuahua's Governor
Telegraphs American
Upon Railway Matters

KANSAS CITY, March 23.—Edward Dickinson, general manager of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway, today received a telegram from the governor of the State of Chihuahua, Mexico, saying work might be resumed on the construction of the Gold line in that state. This line is being built through the mountains of Chihuahua. Work was partly discontinued on account of disturbances incident to the rebellion.

According to Dickinson, the regular line of the Orient road between El Oro, on the line between the United States and Mexico and Topolo Bumpo, on the west coast of Mexico, has not been interfered with since the rebellion broke out. Trains on this line, which runs through Chihuahua, have been running regularly, according to Dickinson.

Farms Lie Fallow in Sinaloa and Famine
Threatens the People

CULIACAN, Sinaloa, Mex., March 23, via El Paso, Tex., March 23.—There is suffering in this state for food, the supply having been curtailed and in some instances cut off. No farms are being planted and a condition of famine threatens, as the majority of the farmers are going into the woods. Many Americans are leaving here. A report is current that Diego Redo, the governor, will soon resign. The people claim that he was forced into office two years ago, over the state's popular choice.

Dedo, a young man, came from Mexico City, where his father is close to Diaz.

General Staff Proud of Rapidity of the Army Mobilization

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The general staff is proud of the degree of success attained in the effort to mobilize an army division in Texas and today made public the facts, as gathered by the army inspectors on which the record was made.

Instead of occupying 60 days, as had been predicted in some quarters, the entire movement was completed in ten days. Within 18 hours after orders were received on March 6, the tenth company was entrained at Fort Benjamin Harrison and the fourth day mobilized for the last to board the cars at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., but that was because of the inability of the railroads to get coaches to that point promptly.

The 17th Infantry from Fort McPherson, Georgia, was the first organization to reach San Antonio, and it was in camp under canvas three and a half days after orders. The troops from Fort Myer, Va., had the greater distance to travel—17½ miles—and they averaged twenty-eight miles an hour on the trip.

Madero and Garibaldi Reported Dead, Prove to Be Very Much Alive

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., March 23, via San Antonio, Tex., March 23.—At the village of Ojo de Langana last night, 100 kilometers north of here, there were 1200 insurrectos. Raoul Madero and Garibaldi, who were reported dead, are with them, as is Francisco I. Madero. The latter has a slight wound in the hand. Of the Americans formerly in the city but now serving the rebels, the others have been killed.

Gen. Baboso is entrenched between this city and the insurrectos. He is expected to remain on the defensive with his force of 600. The insurrectos have been threatening to attack the town.

Rumored That Mexican Troops Have Fired on Soldiers of U. S. Army

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The reported attack on United States soldiers at Presidio, Texas, by Mexican troops because the former stopped the exportation of provisions to Mexico, has raised the question in the mind of officials here as to the possibility of the American authorities having exercised their authority in enforcing the neutrality laws.

The State Department holds that the shipment of provisions and even arms and ammunition traveling in the ordinary process of commerce is legitimate. The other departments of the government interested in the enforcement of the neutrality laws—treasury, justice and war—have been advised of the state department's views in the matter.

CANDIDATES TALK TO ELECTORATE

Two Meetings Held Last Night
Were Attended by Many Voters.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club last night plans were formulated for the voting in the coming municipal election, and addresses were made by Doctor Jackson, candidate for the mayoralty nomination; Harry S. Anderson, candidate for Commissioner No. 1; David Rutherford and Charles Zugal, candidates for school director, and A. G. Davis and Thomas F. Marshall, candidates for commissioner. The following resolution endorsing Anderson, who is a member of the club, was passed:

Whereas, There is a well known and honored citizen, who is also a member of the Young Men's Republican Club, who has announced himself a candidate for Commissioner No. 1, in the person of Harry S. Anderson; and,

Whereas, Mr. Anderson has always been a progressive, conscientious and hard working business man, who always advanced the best interest of Oakland, and one who is peculiarly fitted for the position to which he aspires; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the interest of a wise, progressive, economic and businesslike administration of the office of Commissioner No. 1, we, the Young Men's Republican Club do hereby endorse the candidacy of Harry S. Anderson and pledge ourselves to strive to have him honorable means to secure his nomination and election; and be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the club, and a copy sent to the press and to the said Harry S. Anderson.

APPOINTES SUB-COMMITTEES.

Hugh Hogan, one of the freeholders who framed the new city charter, and chairman of the Leo J. McCarthy campaign committee, yesterday appointed the last of the sub-committees to help handle McCarthy's campaign for Commissioner No. 2.

McCarthy spoke last night at Junction Hill, Seventeenth and Peralta streets, West Oakland, before the members of the Third Ward Republican Club. He was well received by the large audience.

There is no question of the disruption of the Mexican government. Diaz has no power, and his boasted Army could hardly cope with a Central American force. Counting all his forces, he has not 16,000 men that he can depend on.

The army is honeycombed with sedition, and there is no such thing as a volunteer force on which we can call. We do not dare place arms in the hands of the common people, because he knows how hostile they are to him and his ministry. They do not like Limantour any more than Diaz, and it will be impossible for the minister of finance to try to bring about peace."

Fighting Is Reported
at the La Colorado
Gold Mines, Sonora

NOGALES, Sonora, via Nogales, Ariz., March 23.—Fighting is again reported in the La Colorado gold mines on the Mexican frontier. The federal troops reentered possession of the town yesterday, the rebels having abandoned it and marched away, but last night the insurrectos returned and started a skirmish fire to draw the federales out. Fighting is reported to have been resumed in earnest today. The number of men involved is not believed to be large.

Last night at 7:30 o'clock insurrectos in the Altar District of this state shot and killed Ernesto Pompa, acting presidente of Saric, a small town about fifty kilometers southwest of this place. Pompa with a small force of men, had attempted to drive the insurrectos out of his district. It is also stated that the rebels and his brother, Don Jose, the Rebello, recently caused the arrest and transportation to Hermosillo for trial of ten men and it is believed the insurrectos plan the punishment of all connected with the arrests.

The ordinance establishes a license for all persons, firms or corporations conducting and operating collection agencies in Oakland.

ILLINOIS PASSES DRASIC

QUICKLY CLEARS
THE COMPLEXION

Mrs. Mae Martyn has been addressing large audiences everywhere with her lecture on "Beauty and How to Acquire It," says the Philadelphia Call. She said today: "With complexion as in dress, simplicity accomplished most. So many women mistake in thinking high-priced cosmetics best, because of their cost."

"Of all skin beautifiers none compares with common spumgar. It makes an ideal, inexpensive face lotion and used daily for a time makes a rough, sallow, lifeless or plimply complexion clear and smooth."

"To make the lotion, get at any drug store a jar of spumgar and dissolve it in a half-pint of hot water, adding two teaspoonsful glycerine. When applied it does not rub off or show like powder and is wonderful for oily, shiny, rough skins. It leaves the complexion clear, smooth and velvety."

E. A. Young Declares Local

Conservatives Demand Rea-

A new twist was given the meat inspection controversy today between the Merchants' Exchange, for which E. A. Young is the chief spokesman, and Dr. R. A. Archibald, city meat inspector, when Young found the carcase of a hog at a slaughter house in Berkeley which had been inspected by his city inspector the day before it had been brought in from the country, having been dressed by the farmer. According to the assertions of the exchange this is what Dr. Archibald has steadily refused to do for the local real butchers, and it wants to know why the wholesalers should be favored in this manner, and the merchants of Oakland made to suffer the loss entailed by farmers taking their slaughtered hogs to Berkeley and Alameda and expending most of their profits in that city.

E. A. Young rang up Dr. Archibald, telephone this morning and told the latter that he had a hog slaughtered in the country which he wished inspected, not mentioning the fact that it was already marked by a city inspector. After a few words, it is alleged, the doctor hung up without saying whether he would send an inspector. Young rang up Dr. Archibald later and was told that his case would be attended to.

Young stated to a TRIBUNE reporter that he intended to run this case to the ground and find out why hogs slaughtered in the country are passed b yinspectors for the wholesalers and not for the retail butchers of Oakland.

FAIL TO GET JURY IN MURDER CASE

INDEPENDENCE, Kas., March 23.—When the fourth day of the trial of A. A. Truskett, 70 years old, for the murder of J. D. S. Neely, the wealthy Lima, O., oil man opened here today there were but a few of the special venire of sixty men left from which to select a jury. That another venire would have to be summoned seemed probable. The court, however, cautioned counsel not to have a jury have to be selected before the night.

The defense had already used all of its peremptory challenges and the state has only a few left.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 23.—The Senate late yesterday again passed Caminetti's anti-injunction bill, the vote on which was reconsidered in the morning. The final vote was 22 to 18. Two amendments were offered but defeated. The main feature of the bill is that it legalizes picketing in strikes.

The roll-call on final passage was as follows:

CHASE COST $2500.

All the bills for the assistance rendered Sergeant-at-arms Coughlan of the Senate in attempting to locate Senator Cassidy of San Francisco, whose absence from the Senate on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, when the reconsideration of the bill prohibiting labor injunctions caused the Senate to be locked up for about 17 hours, have not as yet been turned in to the committee on contingent expenses of the upper house, but it is expected the total of the same will not exceed $2500.

Sergeant-at-arms Coughlan, when it has been developed that there was no possibility of locating the missing man, was given extraordinary powers which enabled him to seek and arrest the missing man, in any part of the State, wherever Cassidy might be located. This power was extended at the instance of Senator Stetson of Oakland because, up to that time, the sergeant-at-arms had confined his search for Cassidy to the known private and general haunts of the senator in this city and vicinity.

Coughlan accordingly pressed into service half a dozen automobiles, each manned by a chauffeur who was supposed to know all the members of the legislature and the places they frequent when not on duty at the capitol or in their usual places of abode.

These chauffeurs were under pay by the hour and were kept in a state of activity.

FOOD AND MUSIC.

Besides refreshments were provided for a number of hungry law-makers and attendants upon the Senate and vocal and instrumental music was supplied by professionals, to enable the incarceration of the senators to pass as pleasantly as possible. Under the circumstances, the senators felt that they were entitled to these unusual facilities. In legislative halls there is no provision for the privations to which they were subjected under the rules of the upper house.

The work of Sergeant-at-arms Coughlan, his deputies and all the assistants whom he pressed into service, was pronounced effective in the highest degree. At the same time, while it was of an exhaustive character, Coughlan did not succeed in apprehending Cassidy, but remained on duty throughout the night and during the early part of today after the Senate had adjourned last night.

Senator Stetson has announced that the last meeting of the judiciary committee of the senate for the present session will be held tonight. He declined to call a meeting of that body for last night because of the strenuous opposition of the senators to the reconsideration of the case required 21 votes of the character as the votes necessary to pass bills and not the votes of twenty senators and one presiding officer. The chairman, however, decided against the point, and vehemently pounded the desk with his gavel as he voted "Aye," deferring reconsideration carried, at the same time, by a vote of 19 to 10. Coughlan, who sought to attract the attention of the presiding officer and stop him from declaring his own vote as also that on the measure, which he had announced as having been carried.

In the afternoon Gates and Wright sought in vain to tack on amendments to the bill without success, all of the new legislation defeated by a vote of 21 to 18, and were strongly opposed by Caminetti and Cartwright, the two strongest speakers of the session, each declaring that he was unwilling to deprive labor of the only weapons it now had with which to fight the oppression of capital and oppressive capitalists.

The Alameda county senators will be divided on the amendments and on even the passage of the bill. Senators Stetson and Strobridge voted for the bill, while Senator Gates and Senator Hans and Tyrrell against them. On the final passage of the bill Senators Stetson and Strobridge voted in the negative and Senators Hans and Tyrrell for it.

TECHNICAL DISCUSSION.

The discussion which followed the production of Senator Cassidy at the bar of the senate after the deadlock was one of the most technical points of legislative procedure which has ever been experienced in the upper house of the legislature.

Points of order and questions of privilege were almost innumerable and on most of them the widest difference of opinion obtained, even between the leading parliamentarians of the body, who as a general thing, are more or less of the same mind on essentials.

President Wallace's views in deciding questions were strenuously opposed at times and, not infrequently, even friends of the presiding officer expressed dissent from his rulings. Senator Wolfe of San Francisco questioned the president's right to give a casting vote in the matter of reconsideration of the Gates injunction bill, in which there

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER HAS REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE

I have been thinking that word from me would benefit those who may be suffering as I was before I began taking your Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. I am a locomotive engineer, employed on the Tyrone & Clearfield Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Three years ago I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble so bad that I was compelled to lay off duty from my engine and was in the care of two doctors. However, their medicine did not benefit me. One day noticed your advertisement, took and named your address for a sample bottle of Swamp-Root. At this time my trouble had reached such a serious stage that it was with great difficulty that I could urinate. I sent for the sample bottle and in three days received a small bottle of Swamp-Root, which I took according to directions, and by the time I had taken the contents I could pass water more freely. I was so pleased with my experiment that I sent my wife to the drug store to get H. Miller, Phillipsburg, Pa., and secured an one dollar bottle. I continued taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root until I was entirely cured. Now whenever I feel any pain or soreness after being exposed to bad weather or hard work, I take a dose or two of Swamp-Root. I cannot recommend this remedy too highly, especially to brother engineers who are more or less troubled with their kidneys (more than any other class of men).

Yours truly,
T. J. VAN SCOTOC.

WOMAN CLIMBER DODGES DISPUTE

Miss Anne S. Peck Denies She Will Seek Record From Rival.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Miss Anne S. Peck, the mountain climber, today has denied the implication in recent dispatches that any controversy exists between herself and Mrs. Fannie Bullock Workman, as to who holds the record for altitude.

Miss Peck says that in 1900 she publicly registered the record holding the world record for women to Mrs. Workman. Later she published an article in which she said she was unable to take observations on the summit of Huascaran in Peru, and simply gave reasons for believing the mountain to have an altitude of 24,000 feet which she trusted "observations might verify, in that case giving to me the world's record."

Mrs. Workman's best record was 7200 meters attained in the Himalayas. A late dispatch from Paris said she had sent an expedition to Peru to ascertain the height of Huascaran, which was found to be 6763 meters.

"I am thankful that I am a constitutional officer of this State. I know that the people of my native State will, if the true facts are placed before them, do me justice. I have never appealed to them in vain, and am not afraid but that their verdict rendered some day ahead will be right, and that all will be well in the end. Some day I hope those who have wronged me will admit they acted unjustly. So far as I am concerned, the incident is closed."

RENO, March 23.—Nevada is thrown wide open to divorce seekers by Governor Oddles action in signing what is known as the "time lock" divorce bill, which grants a divorce while you wait and no questions asked. It removes the last barrier which some judges in the state had erected against establishing residence as a prerequisite for divorce.

The present law does not mention divorce, but it grants to all strangers the benefits of the courts and the right to vote after six months' continuous corporeal presence within the county in which the action is to be commenced.

It even goes to the extent of permitting absences in cases of emergency, provided the person hastens back. It defines what has heretofore been a subject for the construction of courts, and leaves nothing for the courts to construe.

The law sets at rest those divorcees who were thrown into a panic by the recent decision of Judge Orr in the Ford case. This decision fixed the law as to bona fide residence and would have been an absolute bar in more than 50 per cent of the cases now awaiting trial. It defined the word "residence" to mean bona fide residence with the present intention of remaining. The present law completely overturns the force of this decision.

It is anticipated that the signing of the law today will result in a greater influx of seekers for matrimonial releases than ever before. The law goes into effect immediately and has already been flashed over the continent. The law applies solely to the jurisdiction and does not affect the grounds for divorce in any particular.

CHICKERING TRIUMPHANT

Those who were so fortunate as to hear the great Busoni, at the Ye Liberty Theater yesterday afternoon, in a concert that will long be memorable as one of the historical musical events of Oakland, will appreciate the significance of the following editorial by

MARC BLUMENBERG,
Editor of the New York Musical Courier.

"A new epoch will be dated in the history of the high-grade piano trade from January 6, when the great Busoni, Prince of Pianists, appeared at the New York Philharmonic concert and made a tremendous impression on the large audience, which was followed on Friday afternoon at Carnegie Hall by the playing of Beethoven's Emperor Concerto."

"The Chickering Piano which Busoni played was at once acknowledged as a superb specimen, and after the performance of the concerto, notwithstanding the life of the Philharmonic that there could not be a doubt in the minds of the audience that this was the time the formidable A-flat Polonaise of Chopin. Without a magnificence equal, fit in action and in the capacity to respond to the great demands of such a great artist as Busoni, these effects could not have been produced. It was in fact a Busoni-Chickering demonstration—Busoni the artist and Chickering the art work—combining in making this remarkable demonstration at the Philharmonic concert in this city."

"This noteworthy occasion emphasized new ideals in piano standards. A pianist like Busoni, to whom the question of the piano is entirely lost sight of while he plays, and who insists upon expressing objectively what he believes to be the intention and purpose of the master, without resorting to demands from the piano, is the only possible response from the very softest pianissimo to the most violent and rapid forte passages and chords. His playing of the A flat Polonaise of Chopin drafted every possible power that can be concentrated in a piano of the modern day, and made it a triumphant exhibition of what Chickering & Sons are capable of producing in all shades of piano expression through their instruments."

"We are, therefore, now presented with this fact: that the piano manufacturers of the United States, and of Europe, too, must seek still higher ideals: they can not be satisfied with what they are making today, in view of the fact that Chickering & Sons have not stopped in their progressive march toward the culmination of piano manufacturing. This old house of Chickering & Sons, with nearly a century behind it of history of the highest grade of manufacturing in piano art, is still going forward to represent the progressive spirit of artistic piano production, as in the past it has always demonstrated it."

SPLENDID GIFTS MADE TO UNIVERSITY

ROOSEVELT MAKES PLEA FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Declares General Level of Educational Standard Should be Raised.

MASTERS ALSO NEEDED, DECLARES COLONEL

President Wheeler in Brief Address Tells of Gifts to University.

ness especially attracted his attention. On reaching the Wheeler mansion the visitor was given an opportunity to rest while conversing with President Wheeler, prior to the day's exercises. He was ready to commence the topic which he was to speak upon at the Greek theater and declared that he would speak extemporaneously.

Roosevelt is accompanied by his secretary, Frank Harper.

FORM IN PROCESSION.

Students, alumni, and faculty began early to form for the annual procession through the campus to the commencement of the exercises. The women students of all classes assembled at Hearst Hall and formed in double file on the main walk. The senior women wore cap and gown over their dresses.

The university regents, faculty, alumni officers and invited guests formed in double file on the north side of the new Doe Library. The men students of the freshman and sophomore classes assembled upon the road in front of the old library, the rest of the men assembling upon the walk between north and south halls. The student division, consisting of graduate students and students of the professional colleges, as well as the regular classmen. Each division was in charge of marshals.

The procession moved at 10:15, headed by the student division, proceeding along the north roadway to the theater, where the various groups entered in reverse order and were seated.

SCENE IS IMPRESSIVE.

The impressive spectacle of students young and aged, professors and regents, the young, the aged, the professors, the usual college hilarity totally lacking for one solemn day, was witnessed by an immense crowd which lined the campus paths and roadways, unable to gain access to the theater but glad of an opportunity to view the outward signs of the celebration. The greatest interest was centered in the theater, where the thousands of persons unable to gain admittance to the theater lined his pathway. The Roosevelt smile was frequently seen past the crowds, the stately spreading buildings, most of which have been completed since Roosevelt's last visit here.

THEATER IS FILLED.

The throng which filled the theater was seated long before the distinguished visitor reached that point. There had been enough seat applications to fill the open-air amphitheater, the auditorium, the conservatory, and the hall, and the conservatory had been made for university people and their connections, but 481 seats were left for the outside public. Admission was by ticket only. The theater had been thrown open at 9:30 o'clock, an hour before the beginning of the exercises, so that all confusion in seating so vast an audience might be ended before the arrival of the procession and the start of the exercises.

The audience was seated by a corps of fifty ushers, under the direction of C. E. McDonald. The students were assigned positions above the diazoma in the six central sections of the theater, the women in the two northern sections, and the men in the four southern sections. In the remaining sections, the north were the seniors and invited guests, and in the two sections opposite on the south side were the alumni. The remainder of the space was given up to the regents and faculty members with their families and guests of honor.

The principal feature of the theater decorations was a strip of brown canvas about six feet in width, extending across the stage and decorated with a scroll in blue.

The university orchestra, under the direction of Paul Steinendorff, played an opening march as the procession filed into the theater.

GUARD OF HONOR.

At 10:30 o'clock the simple exercises opened with an invocation by Rev. Willard M. Martin, an alumnus and pastor of the First Methodist Church of Oakland, followed by the arrival of Colonel Roosevelt, accompanied by President Wheeler and a guard of honor composed of Company E of the University Cadets. Colonel Roosevelt was attired in cap and gown on his appearance at the Greek theater. Members of the faculty, similarly garbed, were seated upon the stage.

Roosevelt in his address made a plea for American institutions, by devoting their first and main energies into the raising of the common material level.

"There is no greater crisis in the world's history than to find our young men and women here are the masters of the future, to take control of the destinies of the nation, and you should realize the seriousness of your work. With the growth of civilization has gone the growth of knowledge, and multitudinous institutions in which to acquire it have developed. We see growing in new lands, in the United States and Australia, just as great cities as England has grown in the past. Neither the Greek nor Roman civilization, nor our civilization believe that a new growth should be material only. With the material growth there should be cultural development."

"The University of Alexandria was the first modern university which in any way corresponded to the type we have developed."

"In a new country the men are engaged in the intensely and terribly difficult work of conquering the land--too much to keep up the cultural level of older lands. Even if they retain their traces of culture, the first generation after them has too difficult a task in conquering the elemental forces arrayed against them to attain some cultural growth. There is some excuse for the second generation but we cannot pardon the third generation if it fails in this civilizing endeavor."

ADDRESS OF ROOSEVELT.

The former President said:

"My President, and you, members of the faculty, and of the student body, and you, men and women of California; kinsfolk and friends of the students: I have long looked forward to this day. It is eight years since I spoke here where I am now speaking and it left an indelible impression upon me."

"I assure you I came here much more to test the theories of the ages. A good deal have done you eight years ago, but little in comparison with the good you did me, with the chance that was offered me to get into touch with the spirit of the university, with the flower and the spirit of California and the coast, and before I left the Presidency, President Wheeler had arranged with me tentatively, that it should come out and repeat the address, and it should now certainly, how small the globe has become, that I definitely accepted your president's invitation when he, the president of the University of California, on the Pacific slope, facing the Pacific ocean, was lecturing at the University of Berlin in Europe. The university formed to express the fact that Germany was regenerated, that Germany had seen a new birth and had entered on the repetitive career of Germany's past and that the president of the University of California, writing from the University of Berlin, where he was lecturing, should have sent a letter to me which I received by Lake Victoria Nyanza, under the equator in the year 1890, and will state that same year I hope--I hope by next year--my name will appear in the list of donors which you heard the president read off (applause) because in the letter in response to which I finally definitely settled my coming out here, your president accepted for the university my offer to give the university a spare elephant (laughter and applause).

WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN.

"Education has been very successful along certain lines. One of the most difficult things is to get people to accept what you say exactly as you say it. In laying stress on one side of a subject, we find it hard to make people understand that we do not mean that is the only side. In American life we have been successful along certain lines. In the field of political achievement, Washington and Lincoln occupied places as two of the loftiest types of statesmen who the world has ever seen. I am prepared to defend this statement in a thesis.

"So that if the University of California was already well supplied with elephants I did not want to intrude another one, but that if they cared to have one, that it might possibly be of interest to the University to have an African elephant that was never shot by an ex-president and your own president accepted it and I am now at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington."

"The skeleton skin and the rest of it are being examined with the peculiar minuteness that appeals to the leisurely scientific mind. (Laughter.) But I think it is now ready whenever the president chooses to send for it, and those of you who have not collected elephants (laughter) will be interested in knowing that entirely aside from the shooting which is really the simplest part, the collecting and carrying out of an elephant's skin and skeleton means considerable labor, and all along when I went to Africa I wanted to have some one noteworthy trophy of the hunt taken over to the west coast and left here as a reminder that the expedition had taken place.

ESPECIALLY INTERESTED.

"I am especially interested in the canal because I started the work on it which would not have started if I had not taken hold of it. If I had followed the traditional or conventional procedure, I would have written and submitted to Congress a state paper asking Congress to consider the matter. There would have been a number of excellent speeches on the question which would not doubt be on now with great spirit (laughter and applause). Otherwise the work on the canal would not have begun until fifty years in the future. Fortunately, the crisis came at a time when the canal idea had been started and the canal and both congress not to debate the canal, but to debate me. In portions of the country's press, the debate is still on as to whether I acted properly in starting the canal and I am willing that they should debate me as long as they please, provided work on the canal goes on.

"In the field of material achievement we have done well indeed. It is claimed by some American citizens that they are repository of culture. I am speaking now of the east. The average educated person until recently paid little attention to the growth of the Panama Canal. Two or three years ago of this country seen by Europe were the beginning of the Panama Canal and the trip of our fleet around the world.

GIFTS TO UNIVERSITY.

"At the beginning of the exercises President Wheeler made the brief speech in which he announced recent gifts made to the University, as follows:

"President Wheeler referred to the financial condition of the university and indirectly to the attempt recently to endow the Throop Institute in Southern California at the expense of the Berkely institution.

"It was believed that by an increase in the taxable property of the state we might rise into greater efficiency."

"There is every reason why we should be dissatisfied in not producing great master-minds. Our first duty is to make "...a fundamental change in the laws."

"In the field of practical achievements in statecraft, America has done her full part and more. I would rather, if there is to be but one species of achievement, we have that species. I would prefer the statesmanship of men such as Washington and Lincoln and of those who built the canal. But these two types should not be mutually exclusive. There is ample room for both. We should not be content with a certain kind of statesmanship. In India, in Japan, in the nation's foundation well, but we should not bind ourselves to the belief that the foundation is all. We should build a sure, sturdy, aristocratically and ethically. While we need breadth in education and in our social systems, we ought not to exclude height and depth.

HIGHER EDUCATION.

"In the field of practical achievements, we have the university cadets in honor of Colonel Roosevelt on the old baseball grounds west of California hall. When the "assembly" was sounded the cadets fell in front of Harmon gymnasium. The review was witnessed by Roosevelt, who was accompanied by President Wheeler. Major Lewis was in command.

LARGE RECEPTION.

"From 4 until 6 o'clock this afternoon Roosevelt and members of his family will meet 1500 invited guests of President and Mrs. Wheeler at a reception to be held in Hearst Hall. Prominent society folk will attend the affair. A number of Roosevelt's old Rough Rider friends are among the list of those invited.

Immediately after the reception the former president will dine with the president of the university.

MEETING ACROSS BAY.

"Next Tuesday evening a great public meeting will be addressed by Colonel Roosevelt in the Coliseum, Oak and Baker streets. The following committee will have the arrangements in charge: Hall, Charles Wesley Reed, chairman; George W. Dickie, Marcel Cef, Byron Mauzy, F. G. Sanborn, finance; F. E. Davies, chairman; Harriet Hale, V. Watt, John Q. Gatz, illustrations and printing; H. Weinstock, chairman; Walter MacArthur, Charles Wesley Reed; Josephine MacKinnon, chairman; Mrs. Wheeler.

"The committee has announced there will be reserved seats, and arrangements have been completed to seat an audience of about 1500 persons.

"There will be no speakers except Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Hirsh W. Johnson, who will preside.

"The subject of Colonel Roosevelt's address has not been announced, except that it will deal with live issues of the law.

"The meeting will be held at the Hotel Shattuck with F. W. Richardson.

Death of a Great Newspaper Man.

The death of Thomas T. Williams, one of the best known of San Francisco's former newspaper men, after a brief illness in New York yesterday, comes as a shock to his wide circle of friends and acquaintances in the bay cities. Williams was a man of brilliant newspaper attainments, accomplished both as a writer, editor and thorough business manager, in all of which branches of newspaper work he had given ample proof of his superior ability. At the time of his death he was treasurer of the New York Evening Journal Publishing Company and publisher of the New York Evening Journal, one of the Hearst newspapers.

Williams earned his position as a successful newspaper man through his own active ability, stupendous energy, quickness to grasp a situation and a thorough understanding of the art of managing men which he not only naturally possessed, but which he more perfectly developed in the school of experience. He was a native of England, but came to California when a mere boy to carve out his career and future, beginning life in San Francisco as a humble car driver and subsequently passing through the vicissitudes of life in the mining camps.

Williams' newspaper career began on the San Francisco Evening Post when that publication was controlled by Henry George, who had the keen perception to detect in the young man the peculiar qualities essential to success in the newspaper profession. He was soon after installed as the Post's city editor and later became its managing editor and gave it an influential standing and character in the community that it had not previously possessed.

In 1888 Williams' exceptional newspaper ability attracted the attention of William R. Hearst and he was translated to the city editorship of the San Francisco Examiner. Since then he has been constantly associated with the Hearst newspapers as a writer, Washington correspondent and manager, in every position demonstrating versatility, rare executive qualities, good judgment, wonderful capacity for intelligent work and unwavering fidelity to the interests of his employer.

As a newspaper editor and manager Williams was a man of strong personality and a stern disciplinarian, but withal he was so fair and unprejudiced in the enforcement of discipline that he won the admiration and the affection of every one associated with him in the newspaper business. Of the many thousands of newspaper workers in the various mechanical, literary and business departments that have served under him there are none of them living whose respect he did not command and who will freely bear tribute to his inflexible integrity, sterling fairness and absolute sense of justice. With a deep-seated hatred of injustice and a loathing of hypocrisy, Williams was, nevertheless, of a kind and generous disposition, ever ready to extend a helping hand to the weak and the friendless. Many of those who have worked under him owe their subsequent success in life to the frankness and sincerity and the fairness of his judgment when occasion called for criticism or the enforcement of discipline, for it was always made manifest to the subject that it was meant for his own good.

Williams was undoubtedly as widely known in the newspaper profession as any man in the country, and he commanded the unqualified admiration and respect of all who knew him and his death, in the prime of life and of his usefulness, will be sincerely mourned by them.

The new twelve-inch guns mounted at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, have been fired for the first time and proved to be satisfactory. Let us hope they will never be called on to meet any severer test, nor do we believe they ever will be. The talk about Japan plotting to seize Hawaii is nonsense. But if Japan has any designs on the Hawaiian Islands the guns at Pearl Harbor will incline her to dismiss them.

The proposed extension of the Southern Pacific Company's electric railway system eastward so as to embrace the prosperous city of San Leandro creates a new bond between Oakland and the communities lying east of it. The next move will, doubtless, be to link Hayward in the chain of east bay shore cities.

The evils of rash withdrawals of public lands for the creation of new forest reserves are aptly illustrated in the case of the cutting off of San Luis Obispo's source of water supply which seems to have been unwittingly done in the forest reserving of a section of the public domain in the neighborhood of that city.

President Taft's Assurances of Peace.

President Taft has given a timely and gratifying check to the senseless assertion, which has been fostered and fanned by men and journals of the Hobson type, that Japan was planning to wage war on the United States for the naval and commercial supremacy of the Pacific ocean before the opening of the Panama canal in 1915, and that the military and naval maneuvers on the Mexican border and off the Mexican coast were designed as a hint to the Mikado of the preparedness of the United States to checkmate, by inviting the Japanese Ambassador to a friendly interview to felicitate with him on the ratification of the new treaty recently negotiated between this and his own country, and to give him the strongest assurances that at no time in the history of the two nations had their relations been more peaceful or pleasant or that the talk of war had been more absurd.

Taft's wisdom in inviting the interview on his return to the capital from Augusta, Georgia, and giving these peaceful assurances cannot be too highly commended. Of course, the assertion that the military and naval demonstrations along the Mexican frontier had an unfriendly significance for Japan or carried a veiled threat to that country was too ridiculous for serious consideration in any sensible quarter. But it was being exploited with such persistence and effect that it became imperative to take administrative cognizance of it and nip it in the bud. Taft seized the psychological moment to squelch the malicious reports which emanated from absolutely irresponsible sources.

It is equally absurd to assume that the mobilization of the army and the navy on the Mexican border has any unfriendly purpose against Mexico. The President wisely utilized the occasion also to renew the assurances that have already been given to the Mexican government that the mobilization is not intended as a menace to that country or as intent to carry out any such aggressive designs as have been accredited by wild-eyed sensationalists to the United States government. Mexico is, unfortunately, it is true, in the toils of a domestic revolution, and, in the light of the fact that there are large American interests in the disturbed districts, it has proved essential for this government to take extraordinary measures to preserve the neutrality of the border and of the patrol of the waters adjacent to the border. The Mexican government understands the situation perfectly and it, no doubt, appreciates the action taken by the United States government, for the patrol of the Rio

—PITTBURG DISPATCH.

Grande and the Lower California border line has had the double effect of preventing the violation of American territory by the insurgents and of filibustering by unscrupulous American adventurers and giving aid to the rebellion by furnishing recruits and supplying it with the munitions of war.

But the assumption that either the United States or the Japanese governments was preparing for war against the other immediately after negotiating a treaty of amity was the sheerest nonsense, for it implied an unparalleled example in the history of nations of the grossest insincerity and international perfidy. These absurd reports were, as the President says, scarcely worth denying, and as the Japanese Ambassador said, "ought to be treated as a huge joke"; but in view of the fact that some newspapers had given credence to them it became necessary to put a stop to them, which the President has done in a most effective manner.

Practical prudence is an antidote to pitiful poverty. Men make the most mistakes when they are trying to make the best records.

Despite some Southern opposition to its plan, "The Baltimore Sun" persists in supporting strongly its scheme for a joint national memorial in Washington to General Grant and Lee. The Sun says that the proper influence to enlist in the movement is that of the women, both Northern and Southern, who have been so ready to act when stirred by patriotic emotions and who have done so much to preserve the memory of the dead. The movement is supported by the two armies which the States sent to the field of war against each other. In view of the general approval of the plan for such a monument, voiced by people both North and South, it would be well for the women of Baltimore, the gateway between the two sections, to organize a national movement to carry the project to a successful conclusion.

Public sentiment has for a long time been on the side of the anti-duel question," says a writer in the Berlin Post, but it takes incidents like the one of last week to give those who would see the practice abolished the strongest weapon—ridicule. Two men were to meet on "the field of honor," but the encounter was prevented by the creditors of one of the would-be duelists, who said that their claims, although of little value, would be worth still less if the doctor were dead. The duel to the death on a faraway field in the gray dawn is an episode of the past, which has been supplanted by a noiseless but well-advised meeting, at which reporters' notebooks and cameras play a more important part than swords or pistols."

Baltimore is talking of an Edgar Allan Poe memorial worthy of the city and the man. So far it is only talk, but Mahol proposes it, and he pulls a pretty strong one in the Monmouth Club, where he brought about. The Mayor suggests that a new highway over Jones' Falls, a stream made somewhat famous by the great fire of 1904, be named the Edgar Allan Poe Boulevard and that a mausoleum or other permanent memorial be erected somewhere along its course. —New York World.

Men With Past

A Brooklyn lawyer, suspended from practice, who disappeared seven years ago and was thought to have committed suicide, reappears as the leader of the minority in the Michigan Senate. The Chief of Police at Danville, Va., is recognized after many years as an escaped convict under sentence in Georgia.

During the recent political campaign a candidate for governor in a Western State was identified as one who in youth had participated in a crime of violence on the Texas border. The governor-elect of a Southern State proves in infancy to have been a foundling.

It is pleasing to note that in every one of these cases identity was admitted and that the honorable record of after-life was generally accepted as atoning for early misdeeds or obscure origin. Experience, therefore, while useful in some instances, has not operated to discourage those who in many other places are seeking honesty and industriously to overcome the disadvantages of a bad start.

Experiences such as these give heart to optimists, furnish prison reformers with over-increasing zeal and prove the genuineness of a democracy which does not dwell unduly upon the past of anybody or anything.

MEN AND WOMEN

Something had happened to the her "benefactor" watching her, and she opened the book which dealt with Philippine sugar corn and tried to look interested.

The elderly passenger seemed satisfied and disappeared. In a little while he came back and Miss Fitzhugh grabbed a book again.

"If you have finished those," he said benevolently. "I'll give you some more." Miss Fitzhugh was about to decline angrily when she noticed a twinkle in the gentleman's eye. She laughed and then laughed, too.

"You don't have to read those," he said paternally. "but I do. How would you like to be forced to read them? I thought I'd try them on somebody else so that I could tell the President what an unreasonable request he made when he demanded that I read them."

"How can the President make you read them?" asked Miss Fitzhugh.

"Easily," said her companion. "My name is Jacob M. Dickenson. I have the misfortune of being the Secretary of War."—Washington Times.

HEWITT BILL TO COME UP TOMORROW

NEW CUSTOMS RULINGS MADE

Second Attempt Will Be Made to Put Consolidation Measures Through.

Important Changes in Criminal Procedure Made by Boynton Act.

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—The Hewitt Senate constitutional amendment No. 42, which provides for the annexation and consolidation of cities in different counties, has been made a special order for tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

This is the bill which aims to enable Los Angeles city to annex all the cities in the county of Los Angeles and would revive the hope of San Francisco's gobbling Oakland and all the bay cities, which scheme has just been thwarted by the Senate's defeat of the Wolfe constitutional amendment No. 15. Senator Stetson declared that the Hewitt measure has not even the merits of the Wolfe bill.

CHANGES IN PROCEDURE.

Important changes in criminal procedure are made in a series of bills by Senator Boynton, which were signed today by Governor Johnson. Among them are the following:

Providing that an indictment may be amended any time before the defendant pleads without permission of the court or thereafter at the discretion of the court when it can be done without prejudice to the substantial rights of the defense. The indictment cannot be amended to change a charge of a lesser or so as to change an offense not shown by the evidence taken at the preliminary examination.

Providing that the challenging of grand juries is limited to three.

Provide that if a grand jury when found qualified must be accepted unless the court on application of the juror before he is sworn, shall find that he is not qualified to serve on the jury, or that no challenge shall be allowed to a panel or to a juror unless for want of qualifications.

CUTS DOWN EXPENSE.

Providing that the grand jury need appoint stenographers only in cases where the district attorney demands it and that only those portions of the testimony which he requires need be transcribed.

Eliminating the existing provision whereby the defendant must be furnished with a transcript of the testimony in his case given before the grand jury.

Providing that indictments "may" instead of "must" be set aside for certain enumerated reasons, but not because names of witnesses before the grand jury are not included in the bill, it being shown that the defendant or his counsel does not know that the witness did so appear.

OTHER BILLS SIGNED.

Other bills signed by the Governor were:

S. B. 188—Holahan—Classifying as reportable diseases, measles, pellagra, beriberi, rabies and venereal diseases, making them reportable to the state and medical officer and providing that these boards may take possession of the body of the afflicted if they see fit.

S. B. 192—Wolfe—Establishing eminent domain for the purpose of holding exhibitions of art, Panama-Pacific Exposition measure.

S. B. 422—Campbell—for the teaching of Spanish in the San Francisco Cosmopolitan schools.

Senator Stetson's bill for the admission of persons upon their own application and without legal process of any kind, and allowing children to study in district high schools became law without the Governor's signature under the time limit.

IDENTIFICATION BUREAU.

The assembly passed senate bill 25 to add to Senator Wolfe's bill for the creation of a state bureau of criminal identification. The bill will consist of six members, three chiefs of police and three sheriffs, to be created ten days after the measure is signed by the Governor.

Senator Stowbridge's bill regulating the giving of moving pictures shows passed the assembly. The presentation of offensive scenes, figures, etc., is prohibited, and the pictures must be given in light sufficient to reveal the features of those present. The bill has "passed" the senate and will be sent to the Governor tomorrow.

LUNCHEON IS HELD BY TRI-CITY ROTARY CLUB

The weekly luncheon of the Tri-City Rotary club was held today at the Union cafe, 1158 Broadway. Stuart W. Booth addressed the club on this occasion, taking for his subject "Why Oakland Taxation is Low." Booth spoke in part as follows:

"Judge New York and San Francisco," concluded Booth, "the Oakland tax levy is a bargain counter figure, considering all that we get for it."

O. G. Newhall, president of the Eastern Market, also spoke on "Meat Inspection."

Rheumatism Relief Found

Many in this vicinity have not only found relief but a cure in the following prescription, which was printed last year in the newspapers. Any one having a friend suffering with rheumatism would do well to copy this prescription, as it is easily prepared. The ingredients are ordinary in character, but the peculiar combinations or compounding seems to effect results little less than miraculous. Have a strong decoction which will use the extract and pure ingredients only, and results are assured. Iodide of Potassium.....2 drams Sodium Salicylate.....4 drams Extract of Colchicum.....1/2 oz. Comp. Fld. Balmwort.....1 oz. Comp. Syrup. Saraparilla.....1/2 oz. and take two spoonfuls after each meal and at bed-time. After the first week gradually increase the dose to two spoonfuls. Be persistent and regular in its use if you expect a cure.

ENTERTAINMENT IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Mothers' Club and Literary Society of Albany Present Comedy.

ALBANY, March 22.—The Mothers' club of Albany, assisted by the Swastika Literary society presented the farce comedy "Down South," Saturday night in the assembly room of the Albany schoolhouse. A great deal of credit for the success of the entertainment was due to Mrs. F. A. Pinger, chairman of the entertainment committee, and A. E. Davidson, who assisted her.

W. Crombie, as Uncle Rufe, was realistic as the old-time southern negro. Mrs. Arabella Eaton, as Aunt Sukey, took her part to perfection and her song, "Cotton Blossoms," was one of the hits of the evening.

Dandy Jim was in reality Jimmie Davidson and his song, "Back to Home, Sweet Home," struck the home loving audience as being just the right thing.

Miss Lily Lindquist as "Eva" and Wellington Crombie as "Low" were charming lovers.

Mrs. Alice Davidson as "Rose Gertrude" and William Davidson as Pete had good comedy parts.

A. E. Davidson as "Lazy Bill" danced and sang. The sunflower song, sung and illustrated by five girls of the school, was considerably applauded. The fan drill also by school girls, was excellent. The nightgown drill, the little girls won the hearts of all.

Rosie Marshall in her doll act was particularly charming and ended with a solo "Silver Threads Among the Gold" with much feeling and expression to cause many a tear in the audience.

After a few remarks the floor was cleared for dancing. Refreshments were served in an adjoining room.

The money realized by the entertainment will be given to the manual training department of the school.

CLEVER ACTS MAKE UP BIG BILL AT BELL THEATER

GERTRUDE DUNLAP, Who has Scored a Hit at the Bell This Week.

It is a clever and delightful protein act that Edith Montrose has to offer this week at the Bell Theater, and incidentally it is a thorough expose of the secrets of the makeup table, for Miss Montrose makes all her many changes in full view of her audiences. Character delineations that are different than many one has ever seen before make up the interesting time employed by Miss Montrose. Edmund Sraghian and William Lennox, both well known leading actors, bring a very funny travesty of stage people, entitled, "Dornton's Substitute." In it Sraghian appears as Da-Mel Bianco, a producing manager in search of a substitute for one of his performers, who is sick. He comes with Sandy McTavish, a lean and hungry Scot with a brogue as broad as his native Highlands, and the fun begins. In the end, however, Sandy pulls off a piece of real acting and secures the call.

TWO SUSPECTED OF POISON PLOT

Sacramentans Declare They Know Couple Who Attempted Lives.

SACRAMENTO, March 23.—Mrs. Henry Davis, wife of the rich Oak Park contractor, the members of whose family were the object of an arsenic poison plot, declares that the motive of the scheme was jealousy.

Dropsy attempted to escape after the plot, but was captured by the police. Davis' supplement says that both revenge and spitwork were the motives which led enemies to put poison in the feed for his horses.

Davis declared that he had his suspicions, and that he could locate the perpetrators of the plot through fence blocks of his residence. He said that he had detectives working on the case, and that both a man and a woman were concerned in the plot to poison his family.

Davis has lived in Oak Park for nearly twenty years. He formerly lived in Texas. When he removed from that state to California, he brought with him his first wife, who died in Oak Park.

ASSUMED NAME.

Davis admitted last night that he had lived under an assumed name for a number of years, and that his father was a superior judge in another state. He declined, however, to reveal his true name.

"My life in Texas has nothing to do with this poison plot," said Davis. "It is true that I fought two duels in Texas, but that has nothing to do with this case."

Davis declared that no feud had followed him from Texas. Mrs. Davis' second wife, who is in a nervous condition yesterday, that she kept the doors locked. According to Mrs. Davis, the poison was first given to the cats, then to the dogs, and finally to the horses, before Davis and his wife and daughter became sick.

Mrs. Davis' statement that arsenic was found in the milk is corroborated by the findings of Dr. John T. Culver and Dr. Claudio L. Megowan, physicians who were called.

PAUPER'S OATH FREES FORMER CAPITALIST

ATLANTA, Ga., March 23.—Benjamin D. Greene, convicted of fraud in the Atlanta harbor improvements case and who has just completed a term in the federal prison here, was granted his liberty late yesterday at the conclusion of a hearing on his application to take the pauper's oath. Captain Greene immediately took the oath.

Greene later walked out of the federal building a free man for the first time in twelve years, bringing to a close, so far as he is concerned, a legal battle that has commanded attention for a decade.

Greene's application for leave to take the pauper's oath in order to escape further liability for the $575,000 fine imposed on the two men when they were convicted was granted yesterday afternoon by United States Commissioner Walter Colquitt.

WORLD EXISTS IN 'POLITE ANARCHY'

NEW YORK, March 23.—

The condition of the world from an international point of view is one of polite anarchy," according to Dr. David Jay Hill, United States Ambassador to Germany, who is in New York for a series of lectures at Columbia University.

"The peril to peace and to peaceful interests," said Dr. Hill, in his first lecture, "does not lie in the fact that the state is strong. There would be greater peril if it were notably weak, for then it would not fulfill its obligations and it would have inferior states thereby endangering its existence. The real peril lies in the pretension of the state that it may employ force not only in defending its interests from attack but that it may employ force in any way it may see fit, without regard to principles of law or forms of judicial procedure.

"There are international forms of courtesy, which are based upon certain limited encroachments under the seal of solemn conventions and there are recognized principles of international ethics, but none the less, juristically speaking, there exists a condition of anarchy."

DON'T BE BALD

Almost Any One May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

YOU CAN EASILY FIND OUT FOR YOURSELF IF YOUR HAIR NEEDS Nourishment.

If it is thinning, getting dry, harsh and brittle, or splitting at the ends. You simply have to pull a hair from the top of your head and closely examine its root. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right; if it is white and shrunken your hair is easily and needlessly injured.

We have a remedy for baldness and for growing hair and curing baldness in 92 out of 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. It will even grow hair on bald heads if the scalp is not glazed and shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are sure that Rexall "33" Hair Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff, prevent baldness, heal the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair that we personally guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall "33" Hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or fails to give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall "33" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is perfumed with a pleasant odor, and does not grease or gum the hair.

ARCHIBALD DENIES EXCHANGE CHARGE

Head of City Inspection Bureau Declares Immature
Veal Is Not Passed.

Dr. R. A. Archibald, head of the city inspection bureau, stated to a TRIBUNE reporter this morning that no immature calves are ever passed by his inspectors. The rule being that, in accordance with the city ordinance, no calf shall be passed under the age of four weeks and weighing less than sixty pounds. The rule relative to the weight, the medical consider unfair, as many calves which are well developed, he asserts, do not weigh that much at four weeks.

In regard to the bringing in of slaughtered hogs from the outlying districts, Dr. Archibald said:

"I am quite willing to permit hogs being brought into Oakland, providing the head, spleen, lungs, heart an olive are attached, but I know it will be found that the meat will be tainted when reaching town and will not be passed by any competent inspector. The government plan is not adequate for city inspection, though satisfactory for inspection at big slaughter houses. There is a difference in this, when the carcass is brought from such distances as the San Joaquin valley."

CHANGE IN SUMMER.

"Calves are now coming into Oakland from the country and being passed by my inspectors, but it will be found that as the weather gets warmer the carcasses will be condemned, as the vital parts will taint the meat on its journey."

"It seems to me that the Merchants Exchange is making a row about nothing at all. They want inspection, but object to its being rigidly enforced. At a result of the agitation the inspection ordinance will be enforced with still greater strictness."

At a recent meeting of the Merchants Exchange a calf, which, according to several butchers present, was immature, though bearing the inspector's mark, was shown as an alleged example of the incompetency of the city inspectors. It was asserted by the butchers that Archibald was keeping hogs out of Oakland in an arbitrary way, having no authority to do so.

PAY BIG TRIBUTE TO D. H. MOFFATT

Denver at Standstill When the Dead Railroad Man Is Buried.

DENVER, March 23.—There was an almost complete cessation of business for a time here this afternoon on account of the memory of David H. Moffatt, Colorado financier and railroad builder, who died in New York Saturday. At 2 o'clock when the funeral service began, every street car in the city will stop for five minutes to the weight, the medics consider unfair, as many calves which are well developed, he asserts, do not weigh that much at four weeks.

In regard to the bringing in of slaughtered hogs from the outlying districts, Dr. Archibald said:

MOTOR CLUB HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Plans Perfected for Opening of New Motorists' Home on April 15.

At the regular meeting of the Oakland Motor Club held last night at the Merchants' Exchange which proved to be one of the best attended thus far, considerable business was transacted, notably the finalizing of plans to completely tend toward an early occupancy of the new club house in San Leandro.

Last night's gathering was one of the largest and most enthusiastic since the institution of the Motor Club, a month ago.

No hitch seems likely which to prevent the opening being held on the 15th of April.

Plans are being made to have the opening open to the public.

The membership roll has increased to 200. With prospective ones to be heard from in the next few days, the roll will reach 300, the goal desired by the officers.

About the first of May a ladies' night is scheduled.

This promises to be one of the finest affairs of its kind ever held in the state.

THROWN FROM CAR

HE TRIED TO BOARD

George Durman, an engineer at a local brewery, met with a painful accident about 12 o'clock last night while going to work. Being about to alight from an electric car at the corner of Twenty-fourth and Linden streets, he reached for the sidebar and missing it plunged headlong into the street while the car was still under way. He sustained an ugly laceration of the scalp and a compound fracture of the clavicle. The injuries were treated at the Receiving Hospital. Durman is 42 years old and resides at 3830 Pearl street.

SUES MINING ENGINEER ON DESERTION CHARGE

Alleging willful desertion, Emma M. Young has instituted suit in the Superior Court for a divorce from W. H. Young, a well-known mining engineer of Oakland. The couple were married in Sacramento in April, 1901, and in her complaint Mrs. Young charges that in February, 1910, her husband, without cause or provocation, left her. Mrs. Young asks the court to give her a monthly alimony allowance of $75, saying that Young can well afford to pay this amount in view of the fact that he earns more than $250 a month in his profession.

With few exceptions every candidate was in the audience, and addressed the meeting.

The hall, which seats nearly 500 was filled to overflowing and many were unable to gain admittance.

Among those present and who spoke were Mayor Frank K. Mott, F. F. Jackson, candidates for mayor; George E. Gross, candidate for city auditor; Edwin Meese, candidate for city treasurer; Frederick C. Turner and E. C. Voss, candidates for coroner; and others.

Blues—Boucher and Carlton Burks, No. 1; John Hobbs, No. 2; Reginald Weiss, No. 3; Major Conlin G. Ross, No. 4.

Blues and Boucher will alternate at No. 1 for the Whites and Boucher and Hobbs will do the same for the Blues.

NO ENGLISH TEAMS.

No English teams are entered in this tournament, owing to circumstances which necessitated the return of many of the members to their regiments and their duties in England. At the last minute teams expected from Chicago and Denver were compelled to withdraw. Winter tourists, however, are crowding Coronado for the tournament.

Coming with these is a large number of polo players from Northern cities in the state. Pasadena, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Riverside and San Francisco will be represented so that it appears that the players from Pasadena will not be without supporters during the matches.

Harry Holmes, referee of the American Polo Association, will officiate and Lieutenant Franco Leicco will act as timekeeper.

BRANDS RANDALL PERJURER IN REAPPORTIONMENT FIGHT

Reconsideration Refused by Vote of 43 to 31; Tidelands Cession to Be Made

(By EDWARD A. O'BRIEN)

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—"If the constitution says there shall be a certain population for every assembly district, and you have taken an oath to support the constitution, and you now propose this bill, I will not say that you are a liar, because that would not shame you, because you have perjured yourself."

With all earnestness and in tones which filled the chamber, these were the words addressed by Assemblyman Coghlan of San Francisco to Assemblyman Randall, the author of the house apportionment bill, when the measure was up last night on the question of reconsideration.

The charge was based on the ground that Randall had, in the bill he pretended to be the author or deliberately violated the constitution he had sworn to support, and, in doing so, had at the same time deliberately done injustice to San Francisco.

REFUSE RECONSIDERATION.

The assembly by a vote of 42 to 31 refused reconsideration to the bill. The motion to reconsider was made by Assemblyman Rodgers.

Several speeches were made on both sides of the question. San Francisco being represented also by Assemblymen Rogers, Ryan, Schmidt, Curtis and Lyon, all of them setting forth that San Francisco had been treated in an unfair manner for the purpose of enabling a city to secure control of the south to secure control of the politics of the state and finally grab the secession from California in Washington.

"There is behind this bill," continued Coghlan, "a boss who lives in Los Angeles. Thank God we are free from bossmen in San Francisco. We are purged of bosses forevermore. We are purified and we intend to remain so, and we repudiate the boss from Los Angeles. We will not stand for any more bosses, not even the boss from Los Angeles."

CLARK SEES INJUSTICE.

Assemblyman Clark of Oakland said that there certainly had been some injustice done San Francisco in the proposed apportionment bill, but there was no justification in impugning the motives of Randall or Lissner. He opposed the reconsideration of the bill and thought that if it were sent at once to the Senate it might still become a law.

Reconsiderations were denied by a vote of 43 to 31. The last number shows an increase of 11 votes over the number secured by the opponents of the bill last night. The vote of the Alameda delegation was as follows:

For reconsideration—Coughlan, Fitzgerald, Smith—2.

Against reconsideration—Clark, Young—2.

Absent—Crosby, Rogers—2.

TIDE-LAND BILL PASSES.

Senator Tyrrell of Oakland said in the upper house, the passage of his bill, No. 451, providing for the cession of the tides to the city of Oakland by the state, the western shore of that city which are now being improved by that municipality with a view of developing commercial and industrial interests. Six senators voted against the measure, but none of them spoke on the subject. The bill now goes to the assembly. There it will meet the opposition of some country members, who have evinced no desire to become informed as to the merits of the measure. There is no danger, however, but that the bill will be passed, for the reason that, after a thorough inquiry into the purpose of the act, San Francisco, with its eight members in the assembly, has come out in its support. The same is true, of the delegations from Los Angeles and San Diego, each of which has a similar bill on the files, which is also assured passage.

STETSON'S FIRST.

The first of the Oakland tide-land bills to reach the assembly was that introduced by Senator Stetson, which seeks control of Oakland over the tides in the portion of the harbor in the East Oakland District. It has already encountered the opposition of some members of the committee on swamp and overflowed lands of the lower house, with the result that the measure has been sent to the floor without a recommendation. Mayor Mott, Attorney Snook and others from Oakland are here convincing objectors that their opposition to the bill is founded on lack of information of the difficulties of the measure, because the purpose of the city of Oakland is to have the lands remain to always under the direction of the state and to assure the legislature that the property, under no conditions, can be alienated.

Senator Stetson's bill, regulating nickelodeons, so that the young may find a place of innocent amusement, which may be patronized with the assurance that young girls will be immune from the first blow.

The bill was framed by Senator Campbell and aims simply to enable James L. Crittenden, the well known attorney of Oakland and San Luis Obispo, to sue the state to quiet title to the property at Twenty-first street and San Pablo avenue, Oakland. The property is more accurately described as follows:

"Being a portion of block No. 297 of said city of Oakland bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a point on the west line of San Pablo avenue one hundred and sixty-five and 64-100 (165 ft.) feet northwest from Grove street and running thence northerly along the west line of San Pablo avenue one hundred and thirty-six and one-half feet (136 ft.) feet thence southwesterly one hundred and fifty-nine and 73-00 (139 ft.) more or less to the north line of Twenty-first street, thence southeast one hundred and twenty-five (125 ft.) feet, and thence northeasterly two hundred and fifty-five (255 ft.) more or less to San Pablo avenue and the point of beginning."

The bill came from the committee on judiciary of the assembly with an amendment requiring suit to be brought by Crittenden within sixty days after the bill goes into effect. It will now go to the senate, where the amendment will be concurred in and then to the governor.

The property in question has been sold for taxes for a number of years, because, according to Crittenden's story, of a mixing of the personal and realty taxes, by the assessors and a general lack of part of the latter to correct the error.

Crittenden has a pledge of capitalists to build a $200,000 structure on the property if the title to the same can be quieted.

OAKLAND SOLON TAKES STAND AGAINST RANDALL

Smith Declares Reapportionment Bill Is Unconstitutional; News From State Legislature

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, March 23.—Assemblyman Smith of Oakland was the only member of the Alameda county delegation who spoke on the Randall reapportionment bill, which was adopted by the Assembly by a vote of 47 to 20. He took the ground that the Randall bill was unconstitutional for the reason that it allowed some assessment in counties on a population of less than 20,000, while it was in violation of the constitutional rule.

His suggestion was voted to the committee, and there is no doubt that the assessor from Oakland made an impression on the minds of some of the members.

Owing to the lateness of the session, however, it is doubtful if the amendments suggested by him, as also his brother assessors, who are in favor of the bill, Assemblymen Crosby, Fitzgerald and Callaghan were absent.

The apportionment, with its latest amendments, gives San Francisco six senators instead of five, as at present, to ten assemblymen instead of 18; Los Angeles gets six senators, an increase of one senator, and fourteen assemblymen, an increase of five. Alameda county retains her four senators and gets eight senators instead of seven which she has under the present quota.

The apportionment in detail is as follows, each number indicating a district and each district representing either a senator or an assemblyman:

SENATORIAL.

District 1—Del Norte, Trinity, Humboldt and Mendocino.

District 2—Siskiyou, Shasta, Modoc and Lassen.

District 3—Nevada, Placer, El Dorado, Plumas, Sierra.

District 4—Tehama, Glenn, Colusa and Lake.

District 5—Napa and Solano.

District 6—Butte, Yuba, Sutter and Yolo.

District 7—Sacramento and Amador.

District 8—Sonoma.

District 9—Marin and Contra Costa.

District 10—Kern, Inyo, Alpine and Mono.

District 11—San Joaquin and Calaveras.

District 12—Stanislaus, Merced, Madera, Mariposa and Tuolumne.

Districts 13, 14, 15 and 16—Alameda.

District 17—San Mateo and Santa Cruz.

Districts 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22—San Francisco.

District 23—San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo.

District 24—San Francisco.

District 25—Santa Barbara and Ventura.

District 26—Fresno.

MISS FOWLER TO BE HOSTESS AT RECEPTION

MILLS STUDENTS IN FRENCH PLAY

"Gringoire" to Be Presented by Clever Girls Tomorrow Evening.

The classic French comedy, Gringoire, by Th. de Banville, will be given at Mills College in the gymnasium tomorrow night by the girls of the French department. The girls have carefully rehearsed their parts, which call for male and female characters, and the lines will be read in the original French. All students of the French language and drama as well as the general public, are invited to witness this ambitious affair and no admission will be charged.

King Louis XI will again tread the boards in the person of Florence Harper, who will clutch her dainty thumb on the neck of one Gringoire, the poet (Mildred Ritchie), and make him wed Loyse (Dorothy Clarke).

The scene of the comedy is laid at Tours in the year 1459. King Louis XI wishes to find a suitable husband for Loyse, the daughter of Simon, the draper, whom he wishes to send away as an ambassador to Flanders. Gringoire, the singing poet, comes along and recites his Ballade des Pendus, before the court. The text of the poem bears adventure, and the king's method and the poet's head is in danger. His life is saved in an agreeable manner, however, by his consenting to marry this saucy draper's daughter. All ends joyously, but the progress of the play affords the girls many opportunities to display their knowledge of French and historical talent.

The cast is as follows: Louis XI, Florence Harper; Gringoire, Mildred Ritchie; Simon, Nellie Moran; Oliver de Dalm, Frances Ferrier; Loyse, Dorothy Clarke; Nicolle, sister of Simon, Marie Vaissade; vallets of Simon, Misses Bray and Adams; archers, Misses Simpson, Hoffman and D'Evelyn. The two choruses, "Floraison," by De Mondionville, and "Pastorale," by Chaupis, will be sung by twenty-five girls before the opening of the play.

Lungs Declared Sound—Life Insurance Granted

If you know a remedy that really had cured Tuberculosis, that had saved from death quite a number of people, would you try to get Consumptives interested in it and induce them to take it; or, would you say nothing about it, for fear of giving offence?

We know the medicine. We know the people cured some of them. We have the record of cure of many—and affidavits from scores. We can tell Eckman's Alternative to tell those who have this disease what has been done by its use. Investigate the following:

1618 W. Dauphin St., Philadelphia, Pa.

General surgeon, Dr. J. H. Jeffries, of Philadelphia, who, in August, 1907, I had five hemorrhages from the right lung. My hemorrhages kept up for one week—I had twenty-eight in all. September, I had a very bad lameness, which my doctor told me I had better go to a spinal clinic. As my left lung had also become affected,

About that time I met Howard Klein, 1619 Susquehanna Ave., this city, who was getting a tubercular abscess and thought he had the sciatic nerve. The lameness and pain gradually disappeared. Have not had any trouble of that nature since.

I was accepted for life insurance, after two examinations by company that had previously rejected me.

I have advised several people to take Eckman's Alternative, and they have successfully had the same results as myself.

School Director No. 2

Frank J. Gordon is of the annexed district. He pledges himself, if elected, to prevent politics or political influence from entering the school department in the employment of teachers, or otherwise.

It was he who first advocated and finally drafted the famous annexation agreement, which was one of the first steps toward securing the new charter.

HEART... TRIBUNE'S PAGE FOR WOMEN--HOME

MRS. WILLARD WILLIAMSON was hostess today at one of the prettiest appointed luncheons of the season, when a dozen matrons of the smart set were delightfully entertained.

This is one of a series which Mrs. Williamson will give before the summer exodus fully sets in. Her home on Hillside, near Oakland avenue, is the center for many informal affairs. The color scheme for today was yellow, great bouquets of daffodils and spring flowers being scattered throughout the rooms, while the table appointments were also in the same shade.

Miss Louis Titus, who is living in San Francisco while awaiting the building of a home in this city, was the especially complimented guest today.

MISS HENSHAW'S LUNCHEON.

Miss Florence Henshaw gave a smart bridge luncheon today, when she asked more than a dozen guests in honor of Miss Sue Hall, bride-elect, whose marriage will be an event of April.

The table was unusually attractive, the centerpiece consisting of a miniature automobile, in which were seated a bride and groom, while an exquisite arrangement of hillside valley and bridge roses was effectively arranged on the table and scattered bouquets of the same flowers were used in the room where the guests played bridge after the menu.

The guests who enjoyed Miss Henshaw's hospitality were Miss Sue Hall, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Eliza McMullen, Miss Myra Hall, Miss Josephine Johnson, Miss Pussy Creed, Miss Harriet Stone, Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Alice Albright, Mrs. Harry Chickering, Mrs. Seymour Hall.

SMART TEA.

Mrs. Kendall Morgan's tea for her sister, Mrs. William Gardner Cooke, will be a smart affair, when a dozen of local prominent folk will assemble at the residence of the girls. There are the Messmates Robert S. Fitzgerald, Wickham Havens, Herbert Brown, Harry Farr, James Tyson, Sullivan Jones, George Jensen, William Hamilton Morrison, the Misses Morgan, Flora Bell, Moma Crenell.

KILLS DIVORCED WIFE IN CAFE

Mail Clerk Fires Four Bullets into Woman and Takes Own Life.

ORLEND, Or., March 23.—In a crowded cafe, Owen Ogden, son of the city treasurer of Houghton, Wash., came upon his young divorcee, dressed and vivacious, across the room, firing four bullets into her as they went, dropped her lifeless body at the door, dashed across the street, and, in spite of the efforts of several men who seized and tried to restrain him, fired a bullet into his own temple and fell dead.

Ogden was 23 years old and was formerly a travel mail clerk. His wife obtained a divorce from him less than a month ago, after he had been arrested for beating her cruelly.

Mrs. Ogden went shopping yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Etta Burns, a friend. Later they went to a cafe and were eating luncheon when Ogden and two other men entered.

Mrs. Ogden was frightened and ran to her former husband, clutching him in her arms. Ogden wrenched one hand free and fired his revolver at the woman. In a moment pandemonium reigned. Women screamed and a rush for exits began, tables and chairs being upset and crockery and glass smashed.

Ogden and his wounded wife wrestled across the room until the door of the window fell inward, four bullets having entered her body. A crowd pursued the murderer to the street and several men secured him, but again he wrenched an arm free and fired a bullet into his temple, falling dead on the pavement.

Without grabbing a little bit. Honestly, it seems the funniest things you ever think of come to you in the classroom."

"How do you plan to punish offenders?" was asked.

"Violent rays," suggested one.

"Dunce-cap!" exploded another.

"Keep her in after school and make her write 'I am a bad girl' one hundred times," said a third.

One of the class representatives wailed that the office had great drawbacks.

"My chum is in my class," she said, "and there isn't a worse giggler in the city. She hasn't the least respect for my official dignity I have going to be a regular angel."

Principal Stewart H. Rowe said Thursday that the new plan would go into effect yesterday merely as an experiment. If it is a success in the assembly room, it will be extended to the hall and the class size will be reduced, and some giggling and whispering was necessary before everybody found her place. This morning perfect order will prevail, say the girls, and add that all heartily approve the plan.

WOMAN SAVES HERSELF FROM FIEND WITH HATCHET

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

MRS. EVERTS AGAIN TO HEAD LOCAL CHARITY

Treasurer's Report Shows a Gain Over Figures of Last Year.

DEFICIT IS REDUCED IN PROSPEROUS YEAR

President Calls on Members to Aid Work in Every Way.

Officers and directors of the Woman's Exchange of this city were elected yesterday morning in the tea room of the Exchange, Fourteenth and Jefferson streets. The treasurer's report recorded slight gain over costs in the actual business and made up for the heavy deficit of last year. The amounts received from the art and food departments total $27,251.05. Out of that sum $24,615.95 was paid to consignors. The ten per cent accorded the Exchange totaled $2,733.10. According to reports there are 300 active consignors.

THOSE ELECTED.

Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts, one of the society leaders of Oakland, was re-elected president of the board of directors and managers of the Exchange. She will be assisted during her administration by the following officers who were also elected to serve on the board: Mrs. C. W. Randall, first vice-president; Mrs. Henry Burns, second vice-president; Mrs. Gustave Vanderperreboom, financial secretary; Mrs. Wm. Stoll Baxter, recording secretary; Mrs. E. C. Morrison, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Stewart, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. O. Brown; Mrs. William Letts Oliver; Mrs. E. G. Gibson; Mrs. A. Eastman; Mrs. Charles Snook; Mrs. W. W. Standford; Mrs. T. B. Coghill; Mrs. W. O. Edwards; Mrs. E. Remillard; Mrs. John Francis Smith; Miss Antoinette G. Wilkinson; Mrs. Charles Hutton; Mrs. G. E. Morrow; Mrs. John P. Neville; Mrs. H. C. Campbell; Mrs. W. E. Sharon; Mrs. Florence Wing; Mrs. Frank Adams; and Mrs. Thomas Watson Cushing, auditing committee. Mrs. W. E. Sharon and Mrs. Vanderperreboom; pantry purchasing; Miss Wilkinson; house and store purchasing; Mrs. Oliver; Mrs. Sharon and Mrs. Stewart; art committee; Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Stewart; food committee; Mrs. Coghill; Mrs. Badgley and Mrs. Neville.

READS HER REPORT.

Mrs. Lillian Brown Everts read the following annual report, which was a feature of the meeting. "To the Board of Directors and Managers of the Woman's Exchange of Oakland—Ladies:

"We meet today to hear the annual reports, marking the close of the first year in our new home and to elect our officers and directors for the ensuing year.

"We came into our comfortable, cheerful new store with every hope for success and at the same time a little anxiety lest the fears of some might be fulfilled, namely, that we would find that we were too far west of Broadway and would lose our customers. Our advisory board sanctioned our choice of location and our reports will prove that our hopes have been fulfilled. Our sales at the food counter have been larger than last year and our art sales have increased every month over corresponding months of last year, showing that those who wish to have real home-made delicacies, cakes, rolls and dainties are willing to come an extra block to get them or avail themselves of the convenience of telephoning and having the goods delivered.

DISPLAY MAKES INCREASE.

"The improvement in our art department sales, we believe, is greatly due to the improved facilities we have for displaying our goods. But we have even more than the mere facilities for display and the choice cutlery and fine work—we have clerks in both departments who take such personal pride in the displays in their windows and cases and who exercise such excellent taste in the arrangement of their goods, that much credit is due them, for the increase in our sales. Our afternoon teas have become more and more popular, not only with those who are shopping, but with theater parties and often gentlemen stop in for a light supper or cup of tea. Our private tea room has been rented many times for luncheons and card parties. We hope that many more private entertainments will be given there, for we have recently added to its attractions the daintiest of gold and white china and finest of glassware.

LUNCHEONS POPULAR.

"The popularity of our luncheons continues, for which we are very grateful. We endeavor to have everything in our luncheon of the very best, as to service, materials and convenience, notwithstanding we have reached perfection, but always trying to improve. In the management

MRS. LILLIAN BROWN EVERTS, re-elected president of the Woman's Exchange.

SAYS PUBLIC VANDALS RUIN CONTROL IS PETRIFIED FOREST SAFE

President Vail of American Telephone Co. Sure of the Outcome.

United States Republic Pays $165,600,000 to Telephone in a Year.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, for 1910 made public yesterday showed that during the year $165,600,000 gross revenue was collected by the Bell system from the public for service. President Vail in his report to the stockholders says:

"Public control or regulation of public service corporations by permanent commissions has come, and come to stay."

President Vail further stated:

"Such control or regulation should be of such character as to encourage the highest possible standards in spite of the utmost extension of facilities, rigid economy in operation, rates that will warrant the highest wages for the best service and such certainty of return on investment as will induce investors not only to retain their securities but to supply at all times all the capital needed to meet the demands of the public."

SHOULD STOP ABUSES.

"Such control and regulation can and should stop all abuses of capitalization, or manipulation of overcharges, of unreasonable division of profits."

The number of telephone stations of the company, the report says now aggregates 5,882,119 while there is a total wire mileage of nearly 12,000,000 miles.

of the lunch room, we feel we are most fortunate, having as our housekeeper, one who is competent, capable and working for the interest of the Exchange and the pleasure of the patrons.

"We wish that the public could realize more fully how necessary it is for us to supply their patronage in our lunchroom. My dear ladies of the board, will you not try to interest your friends and have them interest their friends? Tell them that we receive but 10 per cent on the sales in the art department and food department. That is, if we sell $1000 worth of goods, $900 goes to the consignor and we receive only $100 which would not be paid to us by the salaries for clerks, wrapping girls, in these departments alone. Our expenses are heavy—the salaries are between $800 and $900 a month and to meet all our expenses must depend on the profit from the lunchroom.

ASSIST 300 NEEDY.

"We are assisting over 300 needy women to support themselves by placing their goods in the Exchange for sale. Many of our consignors are widows; some are in a sad position even than myself, having no husband to support. Some have husbands who have become invalids and the burden of support has fallen on the wife. One little woman was on the verge of losing her home by not being able to pay the interest on the mortgage. An opening was made for her at the Exchange, her goods became popular and sold well. Her sales, she has not only paid off her interest but the mortgage also and her home is now her own. To impress these facts on your friends, The Exchange was established and is maintained as a corporation for the benefit and relief of needy women to enable them to support themselves. We, who are on the board of managers and directors, gladly and freely give our time, thought and service to the management of the Exchange. We ask only in return, that our friends and the public give us their encouragement and support by patronizing the lunchroom, the art and food departments.

LIGHTENS BURDENS.

"Every cent spent at the Exchange enables us to lighten the burden of some weary, discouraged woman. We deeply appreciate the faithful friends and customers who have followed us from one location to another. They little realize what courage and cheer it gives us to see the faces of our friends and our customers and how we count them our staunch, loyal friends. To our new customers, and they are many, we express grateful appreciation, hoping that by our efforts to please, we may retain them also as constant patrons and staunch friends.

TO M. C. CHAPMAN AND W. S. BAXTER.

To M. C. Chapman and W. S. Baxter we owe many thanks and highly appreciate their kindly, valuable and helpful advice and assistance.

THANK FOR DONATIONS.

For donations during the last year of furnishing flowers for the tables, fruit, money, etc., we are indebted to Mrs. William Letts Oliver, Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Dr. B. Richardson, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Roland G. Brown, Mrs. W. Arnes, Jr., Mrs. N. S. Easterly, Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mrs. D. B. Estabrook, L. E. Thayer and John Francis Smith.

To Mrs. Phoebe Hearst for her generous patronage and support, and to the press for many kind favors and notices. Also to our subscribing members who pay $5 and $3 yearly.

WE ALSO WISH TO THANK MESSRS. DON MORRIS, F. S. SMITH, "HUB," MESMER-SMITH, CRESCENT CORSET COMPANY, MONEY-FAIR, JEWELERS, KAHN BROS., M. J. KEELER AND TATE FURNITURE CO. FOR SUPPLYING PACKING BOXES. ALSO H. C. MILLER & CO., FOR LUNCH MENU COVERS; BERNARD OLIVE OIL COMPANY FOR LUNCH SLIPS; GOLD-BERG BOWEN COMPANY FOR CARDS. THOUGH MANY STORES HAVE BEEN VERY GENEROUS IN SUPPLYING US WITH PAPER BOXES, WE HAVE ALSO FOUND THE EXPENSE OF PROVIDING SPECIAL BOXES AND WRAPPINGS VERY HEAVY.

SHOW SLIGHT GAIN.

Our treasurers' report shows a slight gain over costs in our actual business, which helps us to overcome to a degree the deficit of the previous year, that was occasioned by extra heavy expenses. We are very thankful for this gain, as we have had many serious obstacles to overcome this year, which have led to a decrease in business and results, for it means that much more, for our consignors. The treasurer's report also shows we have received from sales in the art and food department $27,351.05, of this we paid to consignors $24,615.95, receiving for the exchange but 10 per cent—$2,733.10.

BEING CLOSING MY REPORT I FEEL I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY OF EXPRESSING OUR APPRECIATION TO OUR SUPERINTENDENT FOR HER LOYAL, FAITHFUL SERVICES; TO

OUR PATIENT, CONSCIENTIOUS CASHIER, TO OUR BOOKKEEPER, WHOSE HOURS OF THOUGHT AND WORK HAVE BOUGHT FORTH SUCH SATISFACTORY RESULTS FOR OUR EXCHANGE. BUT HOW CAN I MENTION EACH ONE, WHEN ALL IN OUR PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES ARE FAITHFUL, WHICH ARE INTERESTED. AND YOU, LADIES OF THE BOARD, I THANK YOU FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE, YOUR ENCOURAGEMENT, YOUR LOYAL SUPPORT TO ME DURING THIS YEAR AS YOUR PRESIDENT. MAY WE SEE THE EXCHANGE GROW AND BROADEN IN ITS USEFULNESS TO WOMEN. EVER WORKING IN HARMONY AND LOVE. RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.

LILLIAN BROWN EVERTS,

President.

MELROSE SAN LEANDRO HAYWARDALAMEDA*BREAK GROUND FOR NEW FRAT HOUSE TO TEST NEW CAR SATURDAY

Phi Gamma Delta Members to Erect $25,000 Home in Berkeley.

BERKELEY, March 23.—Ground was broken last night by the alumni and derelictive members of the University of California chapter of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity for the $25,000 chapter house which is to be erected in the neighborhood of Bancroft way, east of Bowditch street.

Phil Clay, an alumnus of Sherman, Clay & Co., of San Francisco, turned the first shovel of earth. Later the members of the fraternity gathered at the present house and held their annual Frank Norris "pig dinner" following a custom inaugurated by the late California novelist when he was an undergraduate member of the fraternity.

The new chapter house will be a two-story structure of the modern colonial style and will be a handsome addition to the chapter houses of the Greek letter societies in Berkeley. J. C. Newson is the architect.

ALUMNI PRESENT.

Among the alumni present at the affair were Phil Clay, William Smith, Albert Coogan, Robert Hawthorne, Brooks Palmer, Lloyd Baldwin, Almer Newhall, Alfred Shaw, Daniel Volkman and William Volkman.

William Dibble was toastmaster at the "pig dinner."

The custom of holding the pig dinner originated with Norris when he was an undergraduate. He secured the pig one evening and brought it to the frat house.

A big feast followed, and since then, for many years, in all the chapters of the Greek letter society in the United States, the "pig" dinner is held in his memory.

Among some of the members of the chapter are: Frank Hudson, Murray Hunt, Archie Beckett, Otis Johnson, Frederick Moore, William Martin, Charles W. Snook, Vincent Nichols, L. D. Dowd, John Cribner, Howard Douglas, Ormond Smith, Charles Phillips, Harry Lawton, Joseph Newhall, Arthur Storer, George Cowden, Spencer Kales.

Tomorrow Last Day for Getting Names in the Big Book.

TOMORROW is the last day upon which voters may register or transfer before the municipal primaries, which will be held April 15. County Clerk will keep the registration division of his office in the Hall of Records open tomorrow night until all voters who apply are served.

About 3000 registrations and transfers have been entered since the present registration, 2000 of them representing new voters. This increases the registered vote of Oakland from 29,927 last fall to nearly 32,000 at the present time, and the registered vote of the county to about 51,000.

PORK AND BEANS AS A CURE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

BOSTON, Mass., March 21.—Impressed by the statement of Sir Hiram Maxim that Boston baked pork and beans are more effective than cod liver oil as a cure for tuberculosis, Doctor Philip S. Bartlett, superintendent of the State Hospital for Consumptives at Rutland, will begin serving this dish to the patients tomorrow.

We will give beans and pork a two-week trial and Doctor Bartlett, and if the results are in accordance with Sir Hiram Maxim's statements, they will remain as a regular part of the hospital diet.

The best treatment for the consumptive is given through his diet. We keep him in the open air to what his appetite, for, by eating well, he kills the germs.

The officers have been searching for him and when he was apprehended near his former home, 536 Ashbury street. The police say that altogether he is accused of having taken about $150.

BODY OF MAN FOUND FLOATING IN THE BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—An empty purse and two keys were the only articles found in the pocket of an unidentified man whose body was discovered floating in the bay off section two of the sea wall this morning. The find was made by James L. Marshall, collector for the San Francisco Gas and Electric company, for whom a search warrant has been out on a charge of misdemeanor embezzlement. He was taken into custody this morning by Detective Dave Murphy.

Last Thursday Marshall, who had but recently been employed by the concern on his arrival here from the east, disappeared, and it was discovered, according to the officials, that he was $48 short in his accounts.

The officers have been searching for him and when he was apprehended near his former home, 536 Ashbury street. The police say that altogether he is accused of having taken about $150.

MOTOR BOATS TO MAKE CRUISE

Bay City Launches to Participate in Colusa Regatta in May.

ALAMEDA, March 23.—The launch Carrie L. owned by Judge R. B. Tappan, City Attorney M. W. Simpson, Paul Kellogg and A. P. Smiley, will make a cruise up the Sacramento river May 10 to Colusa on May 28, 29 and 30.

Several other local power boats are expected to join the Carrie L. in the cruise.

Judge Tappan has received a letter from L. R. Boedecker of the carnival committee containing the following data regarding the depth of water and the route to be followed:

"Boats can safely make the trip four feet of water can safely make the trip. There are shallow places in the river but there is sufficient water in the channel at all times. The channel is well enough defined by expert pilots to care.

A large number of boats from Sacramento will make the trip and will act as pilots for the bay boats. The power boat races are to be held on the 29th."

Soldier Kills Himself While the Band Plays

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., March 23.—Driven mad by the thought of leaving his sweetheart, Quartermaster-Sergeant Fred Snyder, A Company, Thirteenth Infantry, shot and killed himself in his bunk at Fort Leavenworth today. He had just left the parade grounds, where the regimental band was playing "The Girl I Left Behind Me," as is customary when troops get marching orders. Snyder was despondent over the prospect of being separated from his sweetheart.

The uncertainty of the objective point of the soldiers and lack of knowledge of what might be in store for them made it a stirring morning for the wives and sweethearts. Trolley cars from Kansas City brought 200 men to the fort before noon.

ADVERTISE FOR BIDS.

HAYWARD, March 23.—At an adjourned meeting of the Hayward board of trustees last night, bids were advertised for the sweeping and sprinkling of the streets of the town.

Simple Essence Makes Best Home Cough Syrup.

Many families in this community have found a wonderful blessing in the shape of a home-made laxative cough syrup which is the most effective cough medicine obtainable anywhere at any price. A whole pint can be made for less than eighty cents, so that it is eight or ten times cheaper than labeled mixtures. Buy a pint of dried essence of Dr. Cook's Laxative and empty it into a pint bottle. Pour over a pint of granulated sugar a half-pint of boiling water, stir cool and then fill up the pint bottle with syrup. Fully saturated, it is a powerful purge for usage of children and adults. Nothing breaks up a cold so quickly and a cough is immediately relieved.

ALAMEDA, March 23.—Adolph Mayrisch, a pioneer tobacco merchant of San Francisco and a resident of the city for 40 years, died yesterday at his home, 1449 Santa Clara avenue, after an illness of five days. Decceased was 83 years of age. He had not been feeble and had enjoyed good health, excepting a long illness of a week ago, when he contracted a severe cold, and was confined to his bed.

For ten years Adolph Mayrisch served as president of the Alameda board of directors. He was keenly interested in civic affairs, and was largely responsible for many of the progressive movements along educational lines while he served on the board of education.

Decceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Marie Mayrisch, and three daughters, Mrs. M. Lencke, Mrs. Adolph Mayrisch and Mrs. Helen Ehrenberg, all residents of this city.

BUSONI RECEIVES SPLENDID GREETING

Ferruccio Busoni gave a program yesterday afternoon at the Liberty Theater before an enthusiastic audience.

It is noted that Oakland music lovers are moved to bravo and to such long and insistent applause as greeted Busoni. He possesses a marvelous technique, which fires his audience with its wonderful accuracy and which showed off to advantage in the Liszt numbers, which require incredibly swift speed and stupendous surety of touch. The audience was delighted and clamored for an encore, which Busoni graciously gave, playing Liszt's transcription of the Verdi quartet from "Rigoletto."

The program was an herculean undertaking, as will be shown by the following transcription:

"Chaconne". Bach-Busoni.

'HOW THE VOTE WAS WON' IN BERKELEY

Matter Will Be Explained Under Auspices College Equal Suffrage League.

BERKELEY, March 23.—At the Hillside club this evening at 8 o'clock an opportunity will be afforded the public to witness the clever little play "How the Vote Was Won," under the auspices of the College Equal Suffrage league, an organization of graduates of the leading colleges.

The probation officers are doing whatever they can to encourage the organization of boys' clubs, the boy scouts, the playgrounds and the larger use of the public schools, in the belief that these preventive measures will eventually reduce the great number of children who come into the juvenile court, by making better use of the surplus energy of boys in particular than petty law-breaking.

The Child Welfare League of Alameda County, which is working along similar lines, has taken for its motto, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and Mrs. Cora E. Jones of the Oakland Playgrounds Commission, in recent addresses at Child Welfare League meetings, has expressed the same thought in the words, "The best way to prohibit is to provide."

'THE ADVANTAGES OF BOYS' CLUBS'

SAN LEANDRO, March 23.—"The Advantages of Boys' Clubs," an address to the members of the San Leandro Boys' Club, will be given this evening by Ole F. Snedigar, football halfback, famous track athlete, and now chief assistant probation officer of Alameda county.

Players and Fans Anxiously Await the Coming of Tuesday and Baseball

OUTFIELDER BOWSER SHOWS UP STRONG WITH WILLOW

Oakland Tapers Off in Hard Work and Now Waiting to Begin Pennant Race

By BERT LOWRY.

It was a case of soft pedal at the Oaks' training camp yesterday, the only real noise of the day being the coming and making good of "Red" Bowser, late of Flint, Michigan.

After a light morning's work at the Hayward ball park the team took a lay-off until 2:30, at which time Manager Wolverton lined the squad up into two teams.

Six innings were played, but no one really cut loose except the slabsters when Mr. Bowser came to the hitting box. Captain Harry told the pitchers to smoke 'em over at the Michigander so that he could get a line on his ability to clout the ball. "Red," while train weary and a little sore, took seriously to the stunt and began to slam them good and hard and from the way he went after the ball convinced those present that he should be some hitter.

Trainer Purinton is well satisfied with the way the men are stacking up and reports all of them in the best of shape. This should be welcome news to the fans, for last year the team was sorely crippled, a condition that practically lost them the pennant of the Coast League.

With conditions favorable for a flying start the Oakland fans should see the team a contender at all times during the coming season.

OAKS WILL DO LITTLE WORK FROM NOW ON.

Outside of the game with the Boston Red Sox team this afternoon and Sunday morning and the game with St. Mary's College on Saturday afternoon the Oaks will do little or no work from now until next Tuesday when they tackle Sacramento in the opening game of the season in the Senators' baliwick.

While the line-up of the Oaks hasn't been as yet officially announced the batting order will read something like this: Maggart, left field; Hoffman, right field; Bowser, center field; Pyle, first base; Wolverton, third base; Wares, shortstop; Cutshaw, second base; Mitze, catcher, and either Knight or Wiggs on the firing line.

Compare this line-up with the rest of those in the Coast League and show me the man that can pick out a better. Truly Manager Wolverton gave Oakland a clever ball team in his first year on the coast and the fans are confident that he will give them a better one the coming season.

Tacoma gave Cal Ewing's pennant a good hard tussle over on the Seal's preserves yesterday afternoon and but for a highly sensational stop by Tomm Tenant in the ninth inning might have made things look different. But for all of that the players from the Northwest League don't compare with those of the Coast League.

San Francisco and Oakland have the class in the infields of the Coast League and the writer looks for these two teams to be the real contenders for the pennant of the Coast League.

Watching Harry Sutor in action yesterday I can see him winning far more games than his colleagues did the same day for Crowley and Browning. Backed up by a clever infield these men should have success.

With Pyle, Cutshaw, Wares and Wolverton to back up Knight, Christian, Wiggs, Nelson, Pernoll and the rest of them I look for Oakland pointers to cut a big figure in the coming season.

True, the rest of the teams might spring a surprise on the fans but to get around these two clever infields will be their hardest tasks.

Ed. Finney made his bow before those present over at San Francisco, being the third man in the ring, as it were. Eddie has a nice low voice and when he sings it is with dispatch but, mercy, you don't know whether the player is out or safe or whether a ball is a strike or not. The best thing to do is watch the players or Finney's hands.

YACHTERS. March 23.—Yesterday Donavan's team defeated the locals, 6 to 5. They got off to a slow start but once mounted the pace, punched eight innings and was touched up for eight hits, but his teammates fielded sharply, cutting off their chances. Two fast double plays were the features and Duffy Lewis, hitting and throwing, kept the crowd yelling. The Californian also was strong with the stick getting a home run, a double and a single, and four runs at the bat. Williams, a new catcher, showed spunk up or a regular infield.

Local minister said Frey, "and be married, we shall be at home at 4:00." Waterman, 22, was born in Carthage, N. C., and had been a resident Dallas for nine years. He lived on Locust and Harrison streets. The afternoon services will be held at 2:45 p.m. at the residence.

CONVICTED BURGLAR CHARGES POLICE JOB

VISALIA, Cal., March 23.—Mike Shaughnessy, an old offender, was convicted in Judge Wallace's court of burglary of a room in a Main street lodging house. He was sentenced to eight years in Folsom. When asked if he had anything to say, Shaughnessy arose and, from a voluminous document in his own writing, he charged the police with jobbing him. Joseph Green of Dinuba was appointed to defend him, and Shaughnessy charged his address to the jury that Green refused to conduct the case as he asked him to conduct it.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 23.—O. N. Ogden, a street car employer, shot and killed his divorced wife, Mrs. Lillian Ogden, yesterday and then killed himself. Ogden shot his wife in a cafe and then rushed into the street and shot himself.

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2 by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 2½ cups of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex, 150 grains of senna, 150 grains of gentian root, 150 grains of white pepper and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is also a good medicine, has good tonic effect and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The task of counting the votes for town officers of Chili Gulch is a much greater task than the committee expected. Director General A. B. Moffitt announced that the vote would be known tonight. So far the only victors known are Dr. D. J. Jackson for mayor and "Pat" Larue for sheriff.

Preparations for the parade which will be held on opening night, March 30, are practically complete and a brilliant pageant is assured. At least 1000 visiting Moose will be in line, decked in the most fantastic costumes and with the old stage coach, cow boys and cow-girls the parade promises to be one of the finest and most unique ever seen in Oakland. Special trains will run from Intercity to the Oakland and many visitors are expected.

The scene painters and carpenters are making a big difference in the appearance of Piedmont pavilion. The uprights are in position and a portion of the canvas has already been stretched and the scene painters are at work giving the big ring the appearance of a real mining camp of the days of '49.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or a full refund of purchase price, if this recipe fails. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to the Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
